BILLY BARNES IS HOST AT PARTY

Billy Barnes was host Saturday to a number of little friends, the day being his birthday. The afternoon was spent in jolly games and prizes were awarded to Claudia Roberts and Wayne Cox in the Pollyanna game to Janette Smith in playing Cinderella's Slipper, and to Edward Mortor for pinning the eye in the jack-o'-lantern.

The house was tastefully decorated with Calla lilies and white geraniums. Cake and an abundance of dainty refreshments were served to the little people. Those present were: Wayne Cox, Catherine Mortor, Edward Mortor, Claudie Roberts, Clarence Dean, Muriel, Grace and Janette Smith and Billy Barnes.

SURPRISE ON J. SCHMISSRAUTER

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bryan gave a very successful surprise Thursday evening to John Schmissrauter, the occasion being the latter's birthday. After a social evening refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those who attended were Lieutenant and Mrs. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and son, Mr. and Mrs. Porter and son, Ted, of San Pedro; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harris and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmissrauter and Mr. and Mrs. L. Bryan.

WHEN FRIENDS MEET
it is quite usual for one to offer the other a cigar. And it is always accepted with thanks if it is one of our cigars that is offered. For our brands of cigars are widely known among discriminating smokers for their fine mild flavor and mellow smoothness. They are cigars good enough for a millionaire, yet priced so as to be within reach of the million.
